CALIFORNIA LULLABY

Sleepy breeze in the redwood trees,
Hush my baby's cries,
Sweetly press your soft caress
Of summer on baby's eyes.
Lull my baby to drowsihead,
Whisper low till the night is sped,
Fan the nest where he takes his rest,
And hush my baby,
Hush my baby,
Hush my baby to sleep.

Radiant moon, your silver strewn,
So richly on the breeze,
May it not throw a lesser glow
Beneath the redwood trees.
Let your rays more softly beam,
Dim your light to a tender gleam,
Let shadows rise o'er baby's eyes,
And hush my baby,
Hush my baby,
Give him dreamless sleep.
